

Position Title: Piano Instructor (Sonoma County)

Compensation: starting at $26.00 per hour/part-time

About Us:

Move Over Mozart is a music education program that specializes in piano learning. Our program was established in 1988. Our program is offered in various Sonoma County schools. We are currently seeking qualified individuals to provide music theory instruction to students throughout Sonoma County.

Position Overview:

Piano Instructors guide children through music lesson and theory fundamentals in a group lesson setting. Our after-school program runs from late August and early September through May with camps offered throughout the summer. Each group lesson is 30-minutes in duration, with 5 students per lesson. Our Piano Instructors are assigned to specific schools throughout the school year. Afternoon shifts vary, but on average are 2-3 hours per day.

During each lesson, Piano Instructors take turns to work with each child one-to-one at the piano; guiding them as they play their lesson book assignments. The Piano Instructor role is supported by the Assistant Piano Instructor, who leads the group activities and focuses on teaching music theory principles from the student workbooks, music-focused games and activities.

Our piano students range from beginner to intermediate in skill-level. We are currently looking to hire Piano Instructors that have a strong background in piano and have had experience teaching. Candidates should be able to commit to 3-5 afternoons per week.

The Ideal Candidate:

Those who apply should have strong classroom management skills, a solid background in playing and teaching piano. Candidates must be reliable, punctual, self-starters who can work well with students having diverse skills in a flexible and uplifting manner. All Music Instructors should have a passion for working with youth and enriching lives through music. The pay for this position starts at $26 per hour. All applicants must undergo a background check and fingerprinting.

Next Steps:

If you feel you'd be a great fit, we'd love to consider you! We are currently accepting applications now through March 31, 2026. We're currently hiring for fall. Applications can be submitted online via the "Job Opportunities" page on our website: <https://www.mozartpianolearning.com/job-opportunities>. Serious inquiries only please. Hiring Manager: Stefanie Hirayama
Stefanie.Hirayama@MozartPianoLearning.com